Mission Statement

The Spanish-American Institute's mission is to provide effective English language skills training to individuals.

Philosophy

The Institute believes that students are more likely to begin and to successfully complete English language training when English For Specific Purposes courses (i.e. courses in other areas that are premised on language learning while having other content) are combined with ESL-Only courses,.

Objectives

The Institute implements this philosophy through:

- the establishment and maintenance of an effective faculty,
- the development of English For Specific Purposes business and computer courses as well as tradioninal ESL only courses., and
- the integration of a varied English as a Second Language course sequence.

The "Plus" courses of the ESL-Plus Course of Study have been reviewed within the context of English for Special Purposes (ESP) methodology and pedagogy. The curriculum components for the ESP courses have goals, objectives, and student learning outcomes that are premised on language learning while having other content.

ESL Course of Study Goals

- To provide a high quality, open-entry/open-exit, comprehensive course of instruction in American English for those whose native language is not English.
- To provide a learning environment where one can develop both his/her conversational skills and workplace skills.
- To provide effective educational advisement, career and professional information and guidance to English Language Learners.

ESL Course of Study Learning Outcomes

Students completing the ESL PLUS Course of Study will be able to communicate in English with accuracy, fluency and confidence.

Course of Study Requirements for F-1 Student Visa Applicants with ESL-Plus (1920 hours)

In order to pursue a full-time ESL-Plus course of study eligible for F-1 student visa application, students must:

- > attend four hours per day, five days per week
- > maintain satisfactory academic progress
- > have English language skills acquisition as their primary educational objective
- consult with a Faculty Student-Services Associate to select an appropriate sequence of courses from among those ESL-only and ESL-plus courses listed in the catalog.

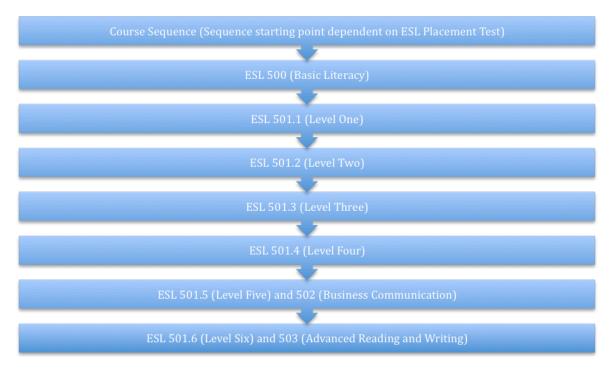

Placement, Movement and Completion with the ESL Course of Study

- Students begin studies at the level corresponding to their current language abilities as determined by the CELSA placement test.
- Students pass to the next level by successfully completing all course content.
- Students remain in the assigned level for the number of hours indicated unless the instructor recommends a higher level. In order to move to another level, students must demonstrate mastery of student learning outcomes one of two ways:

- o Successful score on bi-monthly assessment, or
- o Successful completion of the assigned MyLab Activities.
- Students must complete 65% of the course hour terminal outcomes to maintain satisfactory academic progress. Therefore, the number of hours spent in each course will vary according to course placement at registration and individual achievement of terminal course outcomes.

Course of Study Sequence

500 English Literacy (120 hours)

Course Description

A basic introduction to English for students who have had little or no prior school experience in English. Prerequisite(s): None.

Course Goals

To develop students' basic ability to comprehend and respond appropriately to simplified spoken English and to produce basic spoken English in social situations; to develop students' basic ability to comprehend and analyze simplistic texts in English; to develop students' ability to recognize word order and simple sentence structure.

Course Objectives

Students will learn fundamental literacy skills and basic communicative competence in English needed to successfully continue ESL instruction and/or to participate successfully in the workplace and community. By the end of the course, students should have developed basic receptive skills for listening and reading American English.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Students will be able to:

- o Recognize frequently used words, phrases and questions in familiar contexts.
- Respond appropriately to simple questions regarding personal information and present activities.
- O State personal information; and ask for personal information.
- o Use personal information to complete simple forms.
- o Write basic personal information.
- o Write simple sentences using personal information.
- o Recognize personal information in print.

Instructional Methods

Daily classes encourage application of newly-learned skills to everyday situations through conversation, reading, and writing. Language elements are introduced, used, and reused in different written, oral, and aural situations within contexts drawn from daily life. Instruction will be supplemented with companion ESL video and music recordings keyed to textbook units.

Learning Activities: roleplays, pair work, small group work, practice grammatical structures in context, controlled conversation practice, creative conversation practice, model and repeat, peer review, journals.

Assessment/Evaluation:

Students are required to complete all in-class and homework assignments.

Students are required to take Unit Assessments at the end of each unit.

Students are required to take the Course Exit Exam.

Grading: The final grade is based on the following:

Assignments	40%
Bi-monthly Assessments	35%
Exit Exam	25%
Total	100%

The grading scale is: A=90-100%, B+=85-89%, B=80-84%, C+=75-79%, C=70-74%, D=65-69%, F=60-64%

Grade of C is required to move to the next level, in addition to successful completion of exit exam. Textbook: Longman ESL Literacy, Yvonne Wong Nishio, Pearson Longman, 2006 or comparable text.

501.2 English as a Second Language II (120 hours)

Course Description

Prepares students to communicate using routine statements related to personal needs, desires, and feelings in familiar social contexts.

Prerequisite(s): Placement Test or ESL I.

Course Goals

To improve students' ability to comprehend and respond appropriately to high-beginning spoken English and to improve students' ability to use spoken English in real world situations; to improve students' ability to use grammatical structures necessary for expressing the present, the future and the past time; to develop students' ability to comprehend and analyze high beginning texts.

Course Objectives

Students will understand, speak, read and write at a basic or high beginning level.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Students will be able to:

- o Express simple statements and questions in the present, past and future time frame related to basic needs and common activities, using previously learned phrases.
- o Communicate needs and activities using appropriate time frame and vocabulary.
- o Employ simple clarification requests to determine meaning of question or statement.
- o Recognize words that signal differences between present, past and future.
- o Respond appropriately using present, past and future on familiar topics.
- o Interpret short paragraphs on familiar topics.
- o Identify sequence of events in short readings.
- o Examine authentic documents to locate specific information.
- o Produce a paragraph on a familiar topic.

Instructional Methods

An integrated cumulative skills development methodology increases language retention and fluency by stimulating students to make meaning from a new language through active learning activities. Recorded listening passages build on vocabulary and ideas from background material and exercises. Students work individually, in pairs, and in small groups on guided, linked activities built around each unit's theme.

Learning Activities: lecture listening, roleplays, pair work, small group work, practice grammatical structures in context, controlled conversation practice, creative conversation practice, model and repeat, peer review, journals, paragraph modeling, peer review.

501.6 English as a Second Language VI (120 hours)

Course Description

Prepares students to understand and communicate independently in authentic situations. Students apply reading strategies and critical thinking strategies when reading materials from a variety of sources. Students write and present their ideas with fluency and clarity. Prerequisite(s): ESL Placement Test or ESL V.

Course Goals

To enhance students' ability to comprehend, analyze and respond timely and appropriately to natural, authentic spoken English in a wide variety of settings; to broaden students' spoken English through the employment of appropriate stress, rhythm and intonation patterns; to enhance students' ability to comprehend and correctly use grammatical structures in social, school and professional contexts; to expand students' ability to comprehend, analyze and synthesize authentic texts in a wide variety of settings; to deepen students' ability to organize information, produce summaries and evaluations; to increase students' ability to produce written language for a variety of settings.

Course Objectives

Students will listen, speak, read, and write using longer compound and complex sentences and more extensive vocabulary than expected of ESL V students. They will apply language skills at a higher level of critical thinking to make predictions, express and defend opinions, summarize information, retell a conversation, and compare and contrast.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Students will be able to:

- o State detailed descriptions of events, activities and experiences with both fluency and clarity.
- o Identify main ideas, and supporting details of extended conversations, lectures and broadcasts.
- o Employ discourse connectors.
- o Use advanced strategies to repair gaps in understanding, to ask questions to deepen comprehension and to give feedback appropriate to the situation.
- o Respond timely and appropriately using a wide variety of grammatical structures and vocabulary.
- o Interpret readings on social, professional and school topics.
- o Predict content in readings.
- o Identify events and activities in extensive readings and lectures.
- o Examine, analyze and synthesize authentic documents to locate specific detailed information.
- o Convey ideas in an organized essay with a clear thesis, supporting ideas and details.
- o Identify and modify written work for organizational and grammatical errors and mechanics, such as spelling, punctuation and capitalization.

Instructional Methods

An integrated cumulative skills development methodology increases language retention and fluency by stimulating students to make meaning from a new language through active learning activities. Recorded listening passages build on vocabulary and ideas from background material and exercises. Students work individually, in pairs, and in small groups on guided, linked activities built around each unit's theme. Instruction will be supplemented with ESL audio and video material keyed to textbook units Learning Activities: lecture listening, note taking, pair work, small group work, practice grammatical structures in context, application activities with grammatical structures, creative conversation practice, journals, process writing, peer review, self-review.

Assessment/Evaluation:

Students are required to complete all in-class and homework assignments.

Students are required to take Unit Assessments at the end of each unit.

Students are required to take the Course Exit Exam.

Grading: The final grade is based on the following:

Assignments	40%
Bi-monthly Assessments	35%
Exit Exam	25%
Total	100%

The grading scale is: A=90-100%, B+=85-89%, B=80-84%, C+=75-79%, C=70-74%, D=65-69%, F=60-64% Grade of C is required to move to the next level, in addition to successful completion of exit exam. Students may be eligible for early exit based on successful completion of MyLab activities or early Exit Exam.

Textbook: NorthStar: Listening & Speaking and Reading & Writing Level V, 3rd Edition, (or comparable text); Longman Dictionary of American English now with Thesaurus, 3rd or later edition, Pearson, 2004 (recommended). (formerly NorthStar: Advanced)

Course Goals: To broaden students' ability to communicate clearly and fluently in a professional setting; to broaden students' spoken English through the employment of appropriate stress, rhythm and intonation patterns; to enhance students' ability to comprehend and correctly use grammatical structures appropriate in professional contexts; to expand students' ability to comprehend, analyze and synthesize workplace related texts; to increase students' ability to produce written documents required in a professional setting. Course Objectives: Students will read intensively and write extensively. Students will develop vocabulary and clear pronunciation needed for a professional business setting.

Student Learning Outcomes:

Students will be able to:

- Employ different patterns of development in writing.
- Recognize how context affects meaning, grammar, and other writing choices.
- Recognize and correctly use English grammar in context with an emphasis upon grammar and usage issues for ESL writers.
- Identify and use correct punctuation, mechanics, and spelling in business and real world writing.
- Identify and restate main ideas, implied meanings and supporting details.
- Make inferences and draw conclusions orally and in written form.

Instructional Methods

Students develop reading and writing skills from an integrated cumulative skills approach that increases language retention and fluency by stimulating students to create meaning in a new language through active learning activities. Longer reading passages and recorded listening passages, and videos build on vocabulary and ideas from background material and exercises. Students are guided through the writing process, followed by practice in context activities that allow them to apply each new writing concept to their own writing. Students work individually, in pairs, and in small groups on guided, linked activities built around each unit's theme.

Learning Activities: lecture listening, note taking, pair work, small group work, practice grammatical structures in context, application activities with grammatical structures, creative conversation practice, journals, process writing, peer review, self-review.

Assessment/Evaluation:

Students are required to complete all in-class and homework assignments.

Students are required to take Unit Assessments at the end of each unit.

Students are required to take the Course Exit Exam.

Grading: The final grade is based on the following:

Assignments	40%
Bi-monthly Assessments	35%
